WHAT MEMBERS ARE SAYING ABOUT SWANA

"Being part of the Young Professionals provides me the opportunity to network with other professionals in the industry all over North America. It is beneficial to be able to share lessons and problem resolutions from other facilities."

—Lynsey Baer

"Being a member of SWANA has been a valuable experience for myself and our solid waste staff in North Port, Florida. The support SWANA has shown the City of North Port and our solid waste outreach efforts has been incredible. We've also attended WASTECON and the bi-annual Florida conferences and each event has helped provide ideas to help us improve our service here in North Port. It's an honor to be a part of an organization that truly wants to see their members succeed."
